The first movie camera I ever owned arrived in a paper bag

2

It was a magical Brownie 8mm movie
camera from the 1950's.
I was ten.

I had to set the exposure
manually

and
wind
it up
to shoot

I didn't understand exposure and tried to shoot some animation without extra lights

The film came back completely black.
